Suit By Wallace Is Thrown Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court rejected today a suit by Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama to bar use of federal troops in Birmingham.

The governor asked the high tribunal to declare President Kennedy violated the Constitution by sending troops into the state for possible riot duty in Birmingham racial troubles.

Wallace said neither he nor the Alabama Legislature had asked for federal troops and contended such a first step was necessary under the Constitution. The governor asked the court also to declare unconstitutional a post-civil war statute under which the President acted, and the Constitution's 14th amendment.

The Supreme Court in a brief order said the motion to file the governor's complaint was denied. "In essence," the high court's order said, "the papers show no

Court Upholds Evidence From Tape Recording

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court upheld today the use as evidence of secret recordings of a federal tax agent made of his conversations with a suspected tax evader.

The tax agent used an electronic device hidden on his person.

The decision was given on an appeal by German S. Lopez, who was convicted of attempted bribery of an agent in a tax case growing out of operations of Clauson's Inn at North Falmouth, Mass.

Justice Harlan delivered the 6-3 decision. Justice Brennan wrote a dissenting opinion, joined by Justices Douglas and Goldberg. Chief Justice Warren wrote a separate opinion concurring with the result reached by the majority.

Lopez was convicted on three counts of a four-count indictment charging attempted bribery of tax agent Roger S. Davis in October 1961. The three counts charged Lopez gave Davis $200, promised $200 to the agent, and promised an expense-paid weekend for Davis and his family at the inn. Lopez was acquitted on the fourth count charging he gave Davis $420.

Purpose of the attempted bribery was alleged to be to influence Davis to conceal sales and receipts and may cabaret tax due on the bar and lounge of the inn. Lopez was sentenced in federal court in Boston to one year in prison.

Kennedy's Father Has Minor Surgery

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy, the President's father, rested at his home today from minor weekend surgery and the extraction of two teeth.

Kennedy, 74, had a small skin growth removed from his arm at Cape Cod Hospital in Hyannis Saturday morning by Dr. Samuel F. Marshall of Boston and Newton. Kennedy returned to his ocean-front home after the surgery. He is recuperating here from the stroke he suffered in Palm Beach, Fla., 17 months ago.

Racial Ruling Punch

Immediate Desegregation Called For

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court declared unanimously today that its 1955 decision that public schools must be desegregated with all deliberate speed does not mean that there can be indefinite delay in elimination of racial barriers.

The court's declaration was in an opinion written by Justice Goldberg in a decision which specifically called for immediate desegregation of parks, playgrounds and other city recreational facilities in Memphis, Tenn.

However, Goldberg also made a reference to schools, declaring:

"Given the extended time which has elapsed, it is far from clear that the mandate of the second Brown decision requiring that desegregation proceed with 'all deliberate speed' would today be fully satisfied by types of plans or programs for desegregation of public educational facilities which eight years ago might have been deemed sufficient."

Goldberg then went on to assert for the full court:

"Brown never contemplated that the concept of 'deliberate speed' would countenance indefinite delay in elimination of racial barriers in school, let alone other public facilities not involving the same physical problems or comparable conditions."

At another point, Goldberg declared:

"The basic guarantees of our Constitution are warrants for the here and now, and, unless there is an overwhelmingly compelling reason, they are to be promptly fulfilled."

The Memphis park case, Goldberg said, presented no obvious occasion for warranted delay.

"Desegregation of parks and other recreational facilities does not present the same kinds of cognizable difficulties inherent in the elimination of racial classification in schools."

Minor Events On Weekend For Police

A minor break-in, the recovery of a stolen car and a search for three youths highlighted weekend activities of the local police department.

Monday morning, police received notification of a break-in at the Ideal Food Market, 13th and Ingram. Sgt. Perry Franklin, Officer Clarence Harrell and Officer Henry Randall made the investigation. The officers reported the thief or thieves entered the store via a ventilator on the southeast side of the building, and left the same way. An undetermined amount of groceries were taken.

Saturday police were notified that a car was parked improperly on the Bothwell Hospital parking lot. Investigation revealed the car had been reported stolen from Sally Riggs a few days ago. The car had been driven some 350 miles, and about 14 gallons of gasoline had been used. An electric coffee maker and some coffee cups were reported missing from the trunk of the car.

Vernell Martin, operator of a tavern on South Highway 65, reported Sunday morning that three youths stole a raincoat from in front of the tavern. Police were notified about the same time that three youths answering the description given by Martin had left a local cafe without paying for their meal. Officers indicated both reports concerned the same youths.

Tom Wasson, 2604 East Broadway, reported a red and white bicycle was taken from 502 North Grand.

Carl Walters, 525 North Grand, reported two dummy spotlights were stolen from his car.

Saturday night some youths were reported creating a disturbance on the Safeway Store parking lot. Officers talked to the youths and the disturbance was settled.

Deputy Jack Coutts of the Sheriff's office turned in a Schwinn bicycle that had been found on Highway 50 just east of Brown's Service Station. The bicycle was later turned over to Mike Burtis.

Five Hurt In Accident Near Sedalia

Five persons are hospitalized at Bothwell Hospital with injuries received in a two-car collision on Route 135 in Morgan County 11.4 miles south of Highway 52 at 7:45 p.m. Sunday.

The Highway Patrol said a 1963 Ford station wagon, being driven north by Floyd E. Powell, 42, Kansas City, was apparently trying to avoid another vehicle stopped along the roadway. The Powell vehicle skidded over into the southbound lane and met head-on a 1956 Chevrolet sedan, being driven south by Orsa Silvey, 65, Versailles.

Silvey sustained chest injuries and possible internal injuries, the patrol said.

His wife, Mrs. Kathryn Silvey, 60, received a broken right leg, possible fracture to the left leg, several lacerations on the face and chest and possible internal injuries.

Mr. Powell suffered face injuries, a cut left leg and possible internal injuries.

His wife, Mrs. Jennie Powell, 41, had a cut left leg and possible chest and back injuries.

Their son, John Edward Powell, 14, suffered from shock.

All five were reported in fair condition Monday morning at the hospital.

Damage was set by the patrol at $700 to the Silvey auto and at $2,400 to the Powell station wagon.

Norma Marie Seitz, 53, of Jefferson City, escaped with non-serious injuries when a westbound Missouri Pacific passenger train collided with her car at a country crossing one mile east of California, Mo., at 11:30 a.m. Sunday.

The Highway Patrol said the Seitz car was northbound and the driver failed to see the train until the car was on the tracks. As the car tried to get across the tracks the train struck it just behind the rear wheels and spun the car off the tracks.

The driver was taken to Latham Hospital in California where she was treated for some broken ribs and minor lacerations and released.

Engineer of the train, Missouri Pacific No. 17, was Victor Coughlin, 55, St. Louis.

Damage was estimated at $600 to the Seitz auto.

Phil Sanders, 12, 2430 West Second Street Terrace, received a minor injury to his right lower leg while practicing at Little League Park about 11:30 a.m. Monday.

Sanders was taken to Bothwell Hospital by the Ewing ambulance where he was treated by Dr. E. M. Braverman then released.

At 10:20 p.m. Saturday, a 1963 Ford driven by Walter Czerwony, Route 4, was hit by a car which was reported to be a 1960 Oldsmobile when the Ford was stopped at Sixth and Ohio. The Oldsmobile failed to stop, the accident report indicates. The rear of the Ford was damaged.

A parked 1955 Ford owned by Wilbert Fred Tobaben, 1121 East Tenth, was hit by another car in the 900 block on South Engineer at 4:40 a.m. Monday, it was reported at the police station. The left front and rear of the Ford were damaged.

Police received a report at the (Please turn to page 3, column 6)

Extra Day Off Seen For Some State Workers This Week

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Gov. John M. Dalton announced today most state employees will get an extra day off during the Memorial Day weekend.

New Concern For the Pope

Confined to Apartment By Recurrent Hemorrhage

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Gravely weakened by recurrent hemorrhages, Pope John XXIII was confined to his apartment today. Concern grew about his condition.

A Vatican source said plans for President Kennedy to see the 81-year-old Roman Catholic pontiff had been suspended. Kennedy was due here about June 22.

Belgian-born Bishop Pierre van Lierde, the Pope's sacristan and vicar-general for Vatican City, canceled several engagements in Rome. He was reported remaining in or near the Pope's apartment constantly to be ready to administer extreme unction.

The Vatican switchboard received hundreds of phone calls about the Pope. Operators replied: "A little better."

At the Vatican press office there was no statement on his condition. Informants said the Pope had a restless night.

His personal physician, Dr. Antonio Gasbarrini, who was called here urgently Sunday from his home in Bologna, saw the Pope again at noon today.

Another papal doctor, Piero Mazzoni, kept vigil near the Pope's bedside throughout the night. It was the sixth successive night Mazzoni had spent in the apostolic palace.

All through the night, the lights were off in the Pope's third floor apartment overlooking St. Peter's Square. This indicated he did not need attention.

Mazzoni left the palace shortly after dawn and Gasbarrini did not call until noon. This was taken to mean that at the least there was no worsening in the pontiff's condition.

L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper, said the Pope's condition Sunday night "showed general improvement—above all subjective," meaning that the Pope felt better.

Two Buildings Collapse In City of Glasgow

GLASGOW, Mo. (AP) — Two adjacent buildings in downtown Glasgow collapsed late Sunday night.

City Marshal Raymond Jones said it wasn't known whether there was an explosion or the buildings just fell. Both buildings were two stories and built about 1876.

There were no injuries.

Jones said the buildings were demolished. Debris covered Water St. to the rear and Main St. to the front of the buildings. A road grader cleared the streets.

One of the buildings housed Mattingly's Five and Dime Store; the other the Babe Rose Electric Shop.

Rose estimated he lost between $15,000 and $20,000 in stock alone. Owners of the Mattingly's store had no immediate estimate of their loss.

Bill Rose, a night watchman, said he heard a loud rumbling noise and looked up to see the buildings crumbling.

Federal Funds For Wildlife Conservation

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — The State Conservation Commission reported today it will use federal funds under the accelerated public works program in three wildlife area improvement projects costing $89,484.

The federal funds will pay half the cost of the projects, including: A turkey habitat improvement at Peck ranch wildlife management area in Carter County, a manager's residence at Montauk wildlife management area in Dent County and extensive work at the Sims Valley community lake and wildlife area in Howell County.

The commission also announced purchase of 2,128 acres in five tracts for fisheries research and public recreation. The tracts include:

An area of 1,436 acres in Morgan and Benton counties, near Stover.

For the Rudolf Bennett wildlife area in Randolph County, 156 acres, another 116 acres in Randolph County for a wildlife management area, 200 acres adjoining Caney mountain refuge in Ozark County and 180 acres in Atchison County to be added to Brickyard Hill wildlife area.

Theater Owners Meet With RFK On Segregation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy met today with a group of theater owners as part of an apparent administration effort to speed up voluntary desegregation of public places.

Justice Department officials said about 21 theater owners attended session in Kennedy's office.

Among them was James H. Stembler, president of the Theater Owners of America, who had announced earlier that he and others had been invited to meet with the attorney general to discuss desegregation of southern movie houses.

The meeting was similar to several held by Kennedy last week in New York with hotel men and other business leaders.

Four sessions of this kind are expected to be held later this week, but the Justice Department declined to discuss the further plans in line with a policy of making no announcements regarding such gatherings.

Voting Machines Bill Is Signed

It would allow voting machines to be used on a trial basis in areas where voter registration is not required. The measure was sponsored by Rep. Larry M. Woods, D-Boone County.

Also signed was a bill to allow high school districts to use debt service charges as an item in figuring the cost of tuition for non-resident pupils.

Dates Ahead
Friday, June 7 — 6:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m., June Dairy Night, Court House Parking Lot, Sedalia.
June Dairy Night Plans Complete

Final plans were made last Thursday night by the June Dairy Month committee for the big event on Friday evening, June 7.

To date $122 has been turned in for the full page ad in the local paper. They still need 44 names. Cards have been returned promising 40 cakes. Since at least 100 will be needed, it is assumed that the others will come in, in the near future.

If it is fair weather all activities will center around the Court House parking lot. In case of bad weather, they will be moved to the Smith-Cotton cafeteria, so the event will be held rain or shine.

A group of dairy wives are being recruited to receive and cut cake. The Chamber of Commerce office, just across the street north from the parking lot, will be the headquarters for receiving cakes from 12 o'clock noon that day.

The help of some 4-H youngsters is being solicited to carry out cake to the serving tables and to pick up empty plates from vacated tables.

T.B. Tests of Cattle to Start June 1

Dr. Clem Darrow, federal veterinarian in this area, has asked my assistance in publicizing a TB testing program to start in Pettis County on June 1. This will be a test for reaccreditation for the county. The herds to be tested will include all commercial dairy herds, both A and C, and all registered beef cattle herds that have ten or more mature animals.

They will only test animals two years of age and older and any herd that had a clean TB test since May 1, 1958, will not be re-tested. They have 285 dairy herds in the county with no record of a test since that date.

This test has an incubation period of 72 hours, so all injections will be made on Monday and Tuesday. It will be necessary to get the herds up again on Thursday and Friday to read the results of the injection.

Herd owners will be contacted as to the most convenient time for testing. Dr. Darrow did emphasize that they would not make the injections or read the tests while milking was going on, but would be glad to schedule a visit immediately after the milking was completed.

Pasture Judges Named
Pasture of the month judges for June for the south side of the county include: Willard T. Hall of LaMonte, W. E. Bingham of Sedalia and A. B. Clevenger of Green Ridge. For the north side of the county they are: Louis R. Hughes, Jr. and Carl Shoe, both of Sedalia, and Bruce Claycomb of Hughesville.

We do need to start receiving those nominations for June pastures. They must be in by Monday, June 10.

Ralph Grimes Likes Vernal Alfalfa

Ralph Grimes of Bowling Green Township was by the Extension Center recently to assist Owen Fox with a 4-H project and while he was telling me about his Vernal alfalfa. Ralph says he has now seeded three separate fields and all of them are to the Vernal variety.

Grimes was particularly enthused with the quality of hay from his alfalfa. He said the stems were fine and the plants very leafy. He admitted that the Vernal variety came back less rapidly after being cut and probably yielded a half ton less per acre than other varieties in a year, but he still felt he obtained as much value in hay for feed as from the other varieties.

Lloyd Arnett of Route 3, Sedalia, was by the office a couple of days later asking about his Vernal alfalfa. He was inclined to think that he would prefer it a little more growthy and that he would prefer a ranker growing alfalfa for his next seeding.

Year's Recommended Sudan Varieties

We are continuing our recommendations of standard varieties of sudan grass for pasture. These include Piper, Wheeler, Common and Green Leaf. We would advise you to purchase certified seed so that you are sure to get one of those varieties.

The sweet sudans and hybrid sudans will produce 20 to 30 percent more forage. However, it is frequently high in prussic acid. Our field crop specialists report that in the one year that they recommended sweet sudan as a pasture crop, that more than 100 head of cattle were lost over the state from pasturing it.

Calibrate Your Sprayer

To do a good job of getting the weeds when you spray corn, take a few more minutes and calibrate your sprayer. This will save you money spent for chemicals and kill just as many weeds. Fill the tank full of water. Make a wet run of one round and measure the gallons of water to fill the

Cancer Memorial Fund Is Emphasized

With Memorial Day approaching, the Pettis County Unit of the American Cancer Society is planning special emphasis on its "Living" Memorial Day program. It is announced by Mrs. Harold Norton, president.

"Making a contribution to the Society's memorial fund is a fitting and practical way to help save the living and commemorate a loved one who has died of cancer or other cause," she said.

Memorial contributions may be sent to: Mrs. Harold E. Norton, 816 Crescent Drive, Sedalia, Mo.

Then match the correct amount of chemicals per acre with this rate of water application. The amine type of 2,4-D will cause less breakage of corn. Use one-fourth to one-half pound per acre of 2,4-D acid equipment. Drops should be used on the boom if the corn is over 10 inches high and the weeds are considerably shorter than the corn. Adjust nozzle height so that edges of the spray fans cross about 2 1/2 inches above the tops of the tallest weeds. A lay-by application of 1 1/2 pounds per acre at the time of the last cultivation is attracting more and more interest. This lay-by treatment is used on fields on which late emerging annual weeds, especially Foxtail may be a problem.

Continue Garden Sprays

Some of the variegated cutworms are moving into gardens and flower beds. A regular application of the general purpose garden spray mixture at five to seven day intervals continues to give satisfactory results. If you need copies, call the University Extension Center. Also the removal or close cutting of the grassy or weedy vegetation around the margin of the garden will help in preventing additional build-up of cutworms.

Sod Webworms

Recently we have seen some of the white sod webworm moths in Bluegrass lawns. This is the moth that caused serious damage last summer. Normally it is the third generation which appears in late July or early August that causes extensive damage.

We are hesitant to recommend application of insecticides at this time. We do urge you to carefully watch those exposed, sunny, bluegrass areas, and at the first sign of discoloration, yellowing or dying, examine the crowns at the ground line for signs of cut blades and elongated silken tunnels containing dark greyish-brown hairy larvae usually with several small black spots on each body segment.

Repellent Treatment of Seed

A number of questions have come to the University Extension Center regarding how to protect seed from rodents including raccoons, ground hogs and field mice. One of the materials formulated to treat seeds for plant diseases is highly recommended as a repellent. The trade name is Arasan. This dust is highly irritative and recommendations are to wear a mask and also not to get it on your bare hands.

One method of treatment would be to put garden seeds in a tight fruit jar with some of the material or seed corn or soybeans in a tight cream can with a tight lid. There is also a coal tar product sometimes recommended as a repellent for rodents and birds.

Periodical Cicada

This year Missouri will be invaded with two broods of periodical Cicadas sometimes called locusts. They damage the undersides of the twigs and small branches of shade and fruit trees as they lay their eggs. Most of this damage is done during late May and early June. Probably the young shade and fruit trees and commercial orchards should be protected.

Pesticidal Chemical Usage

We need to use care in the use of all pesticidal chemicals. The book "Silent Spring" emphasized what careless handling could do. If we remain as careless as some people have been, this Presidential Advisory Committee could recommend much less use of some of our best pesticides.

Hogs Need Protein on Pasture

It is seldom profitable to withhold protein from hogs on pasture and expect them to meet their requirements from grazing. Pasture is very high in water, even though it is a good legume. Therefore, the pig will not have enough capacity to get the amount of protein he needs.

Adult swine can make better use of pasture than growing-finishing pigs. Some research indicates it may supply one-third to one-half of their protein requirement.

Sweet Potato Neglected In Most Gardens

The sweet potato is probably one of the most neglected vegetables that it is possible to grow in gardens. This is a shame because the sweet potato of today is something to extol. There are varieties that are high yielding.

possess unexcelled eating quality and loaded with vitamins.

Why isn't the sweet potato more popular? There are probably a number of reasons. Gardening trends over the past decade or so are toward smaller gardens. Sweet potatoes do take considerable room, so often are left out of garden plans.

By the middle of May, when sweet potatoes usually are planted, gardening enthusiasm has and field margins is becoming an increasing problem for Missouri farmers. A foliage spray of 2 1/2 pounds of an equal mixture of 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T in 100 gallons of water, sprayed to give coverage without runoff, is ordinarily a practical treatment from the standpoint of cost and convenience.

Either of the materials is effective on poison ivy. Sometimes spraying may be necessary here with either chemical. Another material called Amitrol is slightly more effective and is less liable to cause injury to nearby desirable plants. However, it is more expensive and may be more difficult to secure.

Treating Injured Shade Trees

The edges of bark wounds on shade trees should be smoothed with a sharp knife and exposed wood in the damaged area should be painted with a good tree wound dressing. Commercial tree wound dressing consists primarily of asphalt compounds and can be obtained at most paint or garden supply stores.

waned somewhat, and gardeners may have used up all the space. Then too, most varieties of sweet potatoes do not yield too well in highly fertile gardens.

Many gardeners experience difficulty in obtaining plants, particularly of the newer varieties. Plant growers, however, have difficulty selling good quality plants at a price which is profitable to them. Most of the newer varieties produce far fewer plants per square foot of bed space than the old Porto Rico or Nancy Hall varieties.

While it costs more to grow the newer sweet potato varieties, the extra quality and high yields more than justify the added cost. Try them out, and then judge whether this vegetable has a place in your garden.

Following is a list of the new, high quality sweet potato varieties. They include: Allgold, Centennial, Carogold, Nugget and Tango. They are considered the "cream of the crop" for Missouri. If you can find plants in your area, give them a try. There is still time to plant them this year.

Except for the Carogold variety, avoid planting sweet potatoes in highly fertile garden soils. A good field soil, fertilized with a 3-12-12 or a 3-9-18 fertilizer makes an ideal sweet potato soil. Use at rate of 12 pounds per 1000 square feet of soil. Mix the fertilizer into the upper six inches.

Sweet potatoes should be spaced about a foot apart in the row, with rows 36 to 42 inches apart. Be sure to water the plants as you set them out. A weak starter solution will help get your plants off to a good start. Insects are usually not a problem with sweet potatoes. And if you purchase disease free plants and plant on clean ground you should have no trouble with disease. Keep down weeds and then await your harvest.

Fort Sumpter, 1963?

The newest events affecting the racial situation in Alabama suggest that this country may be moving into one of the most turbulent ordeals in the whole of its domestic history. The bloody riots at the Ole Miss campus last fall could be only a foretaste of what is in store.

For the stage has been set for a naked clash between federal and state power. If that confrontation comes to pass, there can be no predicting the full outcome. But it could be very, very grave.

History never quite duplicates itself. The defiance by Gov. Orval Faubus at Little Rock disappeared quickly when President Eisenhower acted. Though Mississippi's Gov. Ross Barnett several times defied U. S. marshals, he yielded at a late stage.

Alabama's Gov. George Wallace says, however, that he will plant himself at his state university's door to bar entry of Negroes—now set for June 10—and will not yield.

What will happen if he stands that ground? Alabama's Atty. Gen. Richard Flowers says serious violence may occur. This seems a reasonable forecast, since the state already has seen riots over racial issues this year—and they occurred at Ole Miss in spite of deliberate plans to avoid them.

We are unlikely to see again any extensive use of federal marshals such as was resorted to by President Kennedy at Oxford, Miss. The experiment failed, and the troops which first appeared at Little Rock came in the end to Ole Miss.

There can be little question but that the Army would be called on speedily to break a defiant stand by Wallace and quell any resulting civil disturbance.

In past interviews Wallace has said he knows this consequence may follow. He wants this test, at any cost. He says he thinks the forcible removal (and perhaps arrest) of a governor would stir the nation to the peril he finds in the U. S. government's course.

Implicit in this is his idea that, once awakened, a majority of Americans would call on the President, the Congress and the federal courts to change course to a direction acceptable to the forces sternly resisting desegregation.

Everyone concerned with this desperately serious problem, whether near to it or standing at some distance, must ask himself: Is this, or is it not, a nation whose individual parts (states) are stronger than the whole? Would a majority of people rise, as Wallace hints, in support of a course that would confirm state superiority?

Or would a majority support the federal power as supreme?

There is not much time before the next crisis. By all means imaginable, letter, telegram public opinion poll, the country's clear answer to these questions ought quickly to be made known.

We are deciding not just a matter of civil rights. We are deciding again what kind of a nation we want the United States to be.

Reason, the elemental reason of a solid-thinking people, should inject itself into this controversy before a hard collision comes—and perhaps brings with it ungodly violence and a train of events deeply injurious to all Americans.

The World Today

Lagging Year May Yet Be Memorable

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—This lagging year, in which Congress has dragged its feet and the big powers look like bears in a slow waltz, may yet be memorable and even tense at home, if not abroad.

Racial barriers, caught between the Supreme Court decisions against state-imposed segregation and Negro demonstrations against segregation in all its forms, are crumbling in the South.

But even by year's end they will still be far from eliminated. Because of white resistance to the crumbling and Negro insistence upon hastening it, racial explosions in the South could turn this into an agonizing year.

And it can't even be guessed what will happen in Alabama if Gov. George C. Wallace insists on defying a federal court order—and President Kennedy uses troops to back it up—to admit Negroes to the University of Alabama.

In Congress this has been a dull, slow time. From the beginning of his term Kennedy has leaned over backwards to get along with Southern Democrats, even when they hurled roadblocks at some of his programs, like medical care for the aged.

On other programs they've been of help to him.

But the pleasant relationship may turn sour and the help diminish if he really pushes hard for civil rights measures with teeth at the very time he's hoping Congress will give him the kind of tax cut program he's pleaded for.

Southern opposition to civil rights legislation, with the filibuster and all the dragged-out days and nights that means, could keep Congress in session on into fall.

And if he does push for civil rights bills Kennedy will have to think of what Southern antagonism will mean to Democrat party unity in 1964 and his chance for a second term.

Abroad, this year has been a kind of stumbling time for both the United States and its allies on one side and communism on the other.

Premier Khrushchev has avoided new crises. His time seems to have been taken up with:

1. Recovering from the bang to his prestige—after being forced to pull his missiles out of Cuba last fall—and perhaps pondering some other strategy of tit-for-tat to make the United States back down on something.
2. Trying to avoid a violent break with his Red Chinese critics while trying to rally world Communist opinion to his side before he has a showdown with the Chinese Communists. Some kind of showdown seems certain.

Meanwhile Kennedy has had his hands full trying to preserve allied unity—both on trade and defense—after French President de Gaulle cracked it at the seams with his tactics.

So the Kennedy administration has been wrestling with its allies over tariffs while offering plans, which sound far bigger than they look, for a NATO nuclear force.

In short, this first half of 1963 has been pretty much a time of preparation for the last half.

The Well Child

Mothers: Don't Fret Over Child's Umbilical Hernia

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
In many infants, after the umbilical cord has fallen off, there is an opening in the abdominal wall at the navel. Through it, a small part of the intestine may protrude.

Regardless of the size of the opening, 90 per cent of these umbilical hernias (ruptured navels) close without any treatment before the child reaches the age of 5.

Such a hernia is often a great source of worry to the mother. Because of instant demands, doctors have in the past pulled the skin from either side of the hernia together with adhesive tape. Sometimes, as an added refinement, a lucky penny was placed inside a manhole cover over the opening before applying the tape.

It has been shown conclusively that this procedure does no good. It is not advisable, because the tape soon becomes dirty and is irritating to the skin.

These hernias usually cause no discomfort or disturbance of the proper working of the intestine, but strangulation of the intestinal loop does occur. This is a rare complication and one that necessitates an operation.

For the small per cent of these hernias that have not closed by themselves by the time a child is between 4 and 5, operative repair may be necessary. The operation is a relatively simple one. The results are excellent.

Q—I love my children, but I find that I often handle them more roughly than their disobedience warrants. My doctor says I have hostile feelings which I take out on the children. What can I do about it?

A—Everyone has feelings of hostility now and then. Commonly, whoever is nearest gets the impact.

If you recognize that this is what is happening (and many mothers don't) you should lose no time in making it clear to your children that you love them—that you are upset by their behavior, but not angry at them.

ORLANDO (Fla.) SENTINEL: Whose Fault?
—A teen-ager in court on charges of "borrowing" three cars says it wasn't his fault, even though he admitted taking the vehicles. Then whose fault was it? He thinks it was the law enforcement officers' fault because: "They had their chance to pick me up before and they didn't."

An interesting idea, but the youngster isn't going back far enough. Somebody else had an opportunity to set him straight, too, and failed. However, the boy does have a point of sorts, which is: If first offenses of serious nature were regarded as such by parents, lawmen and courts, there might not be second offenses. The authority for this sentiment is Mr. J. Edgar Hoover.

Another N. H. Gamble

The most astonishing political announcement of recent years is that of former Minnesota governor Harold Stassen that next year he might enter presidential primaries in New Hampshire and other states.

Once an esteemed and promising Republican prospect, Stassen began a long political descent in 1948 when he overreached himself in bidding for the GOP presidential nomination.

Four years later he made a pitifully weak second try. Everyone but Stassen seemed to understand he had no chance. After that he ran for governor of Pennsylvania, and then mayor of Philadelphia, and failed each time.

Today it is charitable to say he is in political oblivion. His serious presidential hopes ended 15 years ago. They will not be revived by this curious effort to recapture the past.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Alabama, Mississippi Not for JFK

By DREW PEARSON
WASHINGTON — After Governor George Wallace of Alabama had ridden with JFK in a helicopter over the TVA, his private comment to friends was: "This fellow Kennedy is a real charming fellow."

However, the Governor of Alabama is not going to operate in a particularly charming manner toward Kennedy when it comes to the 1964 election. Kennedy will lose all of Alabama's ten electoral votes.

Gov. Wallace was very careful in a press conference following his talk with Kennedy to say: "The South is going to decide who the next President is." But he refrained from explaining exactly what he planned to do. However, plans are already under way to run an independent ticket of electors in Alabama — also in Mississippi — pledged to vote for any candidate.

The way political tides are running currently in Alabama and Mississippi these two unpledged tickets will be overwhelmingly elected and will not vote for Kennedy. This will mean the loss of 17 electoral votes. If the President loses Florida, as he did in 1960, plus Louisiana, Tennessee, Kentucky and Virginia, he will have to keep solid all his Northern states; and some of them such as Pennsylvania, Michigan, and Illinois are wobbly.

Note — This is why the Kennedys are not taking the 1964 election for granted.

Wheat Dilemma
Harassed Senator Horatio Humphrey, the kindhearted Hubert from Minnesota, is feeling sorry for the wheat farmers, especially the small farmers. He figures most of the latter didn't know how disastrous the drop in the price of wheat would be when they voted against the Kennedy-Freeman wheat control plan and that many of the small farmers will be forced off the farm unless there is a stopgap bill.

This is what opponents of the wheat control bill, led by the Farm Bureau, were counting on. They figured that Kennedy, despite public statements to the contrary, would be forced to pass a mild stopgap wheat control bill this year.

All this has put the President on a more serious spot than appears on the surface, for these reasons:

1. Republican farm leaders are already promoting new wheat bills, drafted by the Farm Bureau and other opponents of the rigid Kennedy-Freeman Plan.
2. — The best supporters of the United States, the British Commonwealth countries of Australia and Canada, will take a terrific licking if the bottom drops out of the wheat market.
3. — 1964 is a Presidential election year with some of JFK's best Senate supporters running in wheat states. The low cost of wheat, no matter who is responsible, will hurt politically.

All this means that the pressure on Kennedy will be terrific.

On the other hand, Kennedy already faces the Republican charge that he is a pushover. They have accused him of making pledges that he would not retreat on Laos, would not retreat on Cuba, would not recognize the military Junta in Peru, would not lend money to Brazil until it reformed its inflation; then, despite these promises, retreating anyway.

The President stated categorically that he would not pass a new wheat bill. Now the Republicans are demanding that he do what they have criticized him for doing — retreat.

Legion Boycotts New Orleans
The American Legion acted with speed and vigor to pull its annual convention out of New Orleans after the question of hotel accommodations for Negroes was in doubt.

Commander James Powers, who comes from Macon, Ga., took a trip to New Orleans, called in hotel managers to ask them point-blank whether their hotels would be open to Negro Legionnaires.

Some of the hotelmen were hesitant, some admitted frankly their hotels were segregated.

So a face-saver was arranged, whereby the New Orleans District of the Legion withdrew its invitation. Actually it was the other way around. The Legion withdrew its plans for the convention, which will now be held in Miami Beach, Sept. 6 to 12.

CONFUSION SURROUNDS LIVESTOCK MEASURE
The question as to just what SB 279 does caused confusion when opponents to the measure dealing with the state veterinarian and livestock inspection appeared before the Senate Agriculture Committee to voice their dislike for it.

Sen. Nelson B. Tinnin of Hornersville, the bill's sponsor and a member of the committee, said the measure merely called for more livestock inspection and is designed to help the producer.

However, Sen. Richard M. Webster of Carthage, also a member of the committee, disagreed vocally.

Webster said he had discussed the matter with Dr. L. A. Rosner, the state veterinarian, who felt it would have the effect of placing all Missouri livestock farmers under the definition of trader-dealer.

Joining in the opposition was a large delegation of auction barn operators headed by Forrest Nowell of Mexico, Mo.

Nowell said the bill gives the state veterinarian "dictatorial powers." He suggested instead that a state commission be set up to handle inspection problems.

The opponents quarrelled with one section giving the state veterinarian power "to promulgate and enforce all rules and regulations deemed necessary for the control of contagious and infectious livestock diseases . . ."

The state veterinarian further is empowered to set inspection fees not to exceed 15 cents a head for cattle, horses and mules and six cents for swine, sheep and goats. The fee for each hundred head of poultry couldn't exceed 25 cents. This increases the cattle fee maximum from six cents, the swine from five cents and the poultry from five.

By definitions found within the act, testimony of Sen. Webster would prove valid. A trader-dealer is described as any person engaged "in the buying, selling or exchanging of livestock on any basis other than on a consignment or commission basis, at any sale pen, concentration point, farm, truck or other conveyance . . ."

Such a person would have to hold a license costing $100.

Webster said he had placed this hypothetical question before Dr. Rosner: If a farmer went to an auction, bought 100 head of cattle and then turned around and sold them within a few hours, would this make him a trader or dealer?

The Carthage Republican then told the committee that he had received an affirmative reply from Dr. Rosner. This, he commented, would make nearly all Missouri livestock farmers trader-dealers, because most do it at one time or another.

It would also cost them $100.

COMMITTEE URGES STUDY OF DAIRYING PROBLEMS
The House Committee on Miscellaneous Resolutions has recommended passage of House Concurrent Resolution No. 11 which would set up an interim committee to study problems confronting the Missouri dairy industry.

Ironically, Missouri annually produces volume-wise more milk and milk products than are consumed within the state, yet last year a great deal was imported from neighboring states.

Rep. William D. Hibler Jr. of Chariton County, a member of the Resolutions Committee, said he didn't know if an interim study would produce any concrete results but added there is a great need for looking into the matter of costs to dairy farmers.

Earlier this year, one agricultural official noted that the number of dairy cattle in Missouri is the lowest in recent years.

NO OPPOSITION EXPECTED TO JAIL ESCAPE BILL
Little or no opposition is expected in the House to HB 131, giving counties more stringent powers to deal with jail escapees, which comes up for final action shortly.

The measure, sponsored by Reps. Lankford and McFadin, actually gives the counties the same sort of power now enjoyed by the state in imposing more time on those who escape. Heretofore, Lankford noted, counties could not impose longer terms on escapees.

INCREASE LIKELY IN STATE TB AID
The House has perfected a bill to increase the amount of state aid for hospitals caring for TB patients from $75 to $200. But this is still $150 per month short of the original amount sought by Rep. James E. Godfrey, the bill's sponsor.

Godfrey said the increase would cost the state a total of $2 million per biennium in support to municipal hospitals in St. Louis and Kansas City and the state sanatorium at Mt. Vernon.

The $75 presently being paid dates back to 1929. Godfrey not completely satisfied, although allowed that the increase "certainly will help."

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS REMAIN TARGET
Although a House bill to bring about the demise of the archaic office of county superintendent of schools has been defeated, an identical, but amended, measure in the Senate stands a good chance of passing.

The Senate bill, sponsored by Sen. John E. Downs of St. Joseph, would let the voters decide on abolition or retention of the office.

Asked why the legislature has to be involved in such a seemingly local matter, Downs commented that the office was created by the legislature so its death must come from the General Assembly.

There are 26 counties which have no superintendent. Under SB 296 another 55 would be required to hold an election on the issue since they have fewer than three districts. State support for this office amounts to nearly half a million dollars annually.

EQUAL PAY FOR WOMEN
The House has perfected Rep. Pat Patterson's bill calling for equal pay for women. The measure provides that where a man and woman are doing the same work both should receive similar compensation, all other aspects being equal. The bill, however, would appear to be hardly enforceable since all an employer needs to do is make minor title changes or use similar "escape" devices.

Pirates Defeat Milwaukee 5-2

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Alvin O'Neal McBean is a man whose short but successful baseball career has had some very strange twists.

He hooked on with the Pittsburgh Pirates through a quirk of fate. He dropped from starter status to bullpen duty this season and has built up one of the best records in the National League in the unfamiliar role of reliever. And he is finding that the home run can be a pitcher's best friend.

McBean won again Sunday as the Pirates beat Milwaukee 5-2 on bonus rookie Bob Bailey's three-run homer in the 11th inning. The victory was the slender right-hander's third in as many relief decisions—and in all three home runs have been decisive factors.

Also in the NL—the Los Angeles Dodgers nipped front-running San Francisco 4-3 in 10 innings cashing in three runs on three throwing errors by Jose Pagan; the Philadelphia Phillies swept their first doubleheader in Cincinnati since 1950, 10-4 and 3-0; the New York Mets snapped a seven-game losing string, edging St. Louis 3-2 in 11 innings after losing the opener to the Cards 7-4 on Charlie James' three-run pinch homer; and the Chicago Cubs whipped Houston 5-1.

In the American League—high-flying Baltimore made it eight in

Cards Stay Around Mets Too Long

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The St. Louis Cardinals stayed around the New York Mets one game too many and caught the sloppy fielding that has plagued Casey Stengel's crew.

The Cardinals got through the first of Sunday's two games for a 7-4 triumph. But in the ninth inning of the second game an error set up one run and two more miscues led to another in the 11th that gave New York a 3-2 victory.

Kansas City lost to the Angels 6-4 in Los Angeles.

Billy Moran's two-run single capped a four-run sixth that downed the A's.

Orlando Pena failed again in his bid for his fifth victory and took his fifth defeat instead. The loss put the A's in fourth place in the American League, five games back.

The first-game victory gave the Cardinals the first three games of the series and extended their winning streak to four and New York's losing string to seven.

A four-run eighth won the opener. Ken Boyer tied the score in that inning with his fifth hit and third RBI and pinch-hitter Charley James followed with a three-run homer. Bill White had four safeties.

Dick Groat gave the Cardinals a one-run lead in the second game with his fourth homer of the year in the third, but Tim Lincecum tied it with a blast in the sixth.

Singles by Frank Thomas and Ron Hunt followed Julian Javier's boot in the ninth, but Carl Sawatski homered in the last half of the inning to send the game into overtime.

Bob Gibson relieved Diomedes Olivo in the 11th after Charlie Neal reached second when Duke Carmel muffed his fly. Then Gibson fielded a sacrifice bunt and threw wild, allowing Neal to score.

BATTING—Bob Bailey, Pirates, cracked a three-run homer in the top of the 11th to give Pittsburgh a 5-2 victory over Milwaukee. PITCHING—Wes Stock, Orioles, pitched five scoreless innings, giving up only one hit in two relief appearances and received credit for both Baltimore victories over Cleveland 10-6 and 6-1.

351, going 5-for-10 in the two games.

The Cubs beat ex-teammate Dick Drott on Bob Buhl's ninth-inning pitching and the batting of Ron Santo, Ken Hubbs and Lou Brock. These three had all seven Chicago hits and drove in all five Cub runs.

SQUIRRELY PUTT — Putting isn't tough enough, this ground squirrel has to complicate matters by popping out of the cup at Desert Inn Country Club in Las Vegas, Nev.

Champs Go To Post In Track Meet

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Six defending champions will go to the post in the 12th National Intercollegiate track meet Friday and Saturday at Sioux Falls, S. D., but the only strong favorite is miler John Carnien, of Emporia (Kan.) State.

Carnien missed a four-minute mile by a scant .7 of a second at the California Relays. He was fifth, but the best collegian, in the race won by Australia's Peter Snell in 3:54.9, third fastest mile in history.

Carnien's 4:00.7 is much better than the second best NAIA seasonal time of 4:07.1 by Malcolm Robinson of Southwestern Louisiana. Carnien's winning time of 4:09.7 last year just missed the meet record of 4:09.4 by Ty Hadley of Occidental in 1957.

Each of other five defending champs is given at least a 50-50 chance of repeating. They are Roger Sayers of Omaha, 9.5 in the 100; Ray Saddler of Texas Southern, 46.9, 440; Russ Rogers of Maryland State, 14.2, high hurdles; Bill Miller of McMurtry (Tex.) 24-2 1/2, broad jump; and Steve Curtice, Portland (Ore.) State, 217-11 javelin.

Sayers beat Bob Hays of Florida A&M, the meet record holder at 9.3, for the 100 title last year. Hays isn't eligible this time.

Saddler's 46.3 is the NAIA seasonal best. He'll face a talented field which includes teammate Les Milburn, whose best if 46.6.

Rogers shares the NAIA season best of 14 flat with Richard Hearn of North Carolina College. Rogers swept the 120 highs, 220 lows and 440 hurdles last year. Only the 120 and 330 intermediates, a new event, will be run this time.

Miller jumped over 26 feet last year and has surpassed 25 feet 47 times. His chief competitors will be Clifton Mayfield, Central Ohio, with a best of 25-3 1/4, and Charlie Mays, Maryland State, with a wind-aided 25-7.

Curtice is no better than fifth in the NAIA javelin listings this season. Kent Hurn, Emporia St., second to Curtice last year, leads with 230-9. Jim Stevenson of McMurry has 230-3, A. G. Boley of Southwestern (Kan.) 227-8 and Bill Muncy of Washburn (Kan.) 225-9.

Eleven meet records could be surpassed by a field led by John Pennel of Northeast Louisiana, one of the world's best pole vaulters at 16-6 1/4. Texas Southern is favored to win its third straight team title.

Ann Landers

Answers
Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I used to think you made up letters but after what happened to me I will never doubt you again.

I've been married 28 years to a man who was a good husband and a devoted father. He made a fine living and we never wanted for anything.

About 10 years ago he began to complain about trouble with his back. He went to a couple of doctors but could get no relief. Finally he told me about a lady chiropractor who was supposed to have a magic touch. I encouraged him to call her. He told me she didn't have an office, so she visited the patient's home. The fee was $15.

My husband got relief after the very first visit. She has come to the house to give him a treatment every week since.

A few days ago my next door neighbor got me to thinking. She said she had never heard of a person needing chiropractic adjustment for ten years straight. So I asked our family physician to check out the lady chiropractor. I learned that she is no chiropractor and no lady. She has worked in a few massage parlors around town and has a rotten reputation.

To think I was dumb enough to let this woman in our home once a week for 10 years straight makes me sick. I have no proof that there is anything between her and my husband but I am plenty suspicious.

He says his back is fine now and he is willing to give up the treatments. Should I believe him? DUMMY.

Dear Dummy: In the absence of really persuasive evidence, accept his word. If your husband's back knocks out again make certain he goes to a male professional who has an office and a license to practice.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm in the 11th grade and tomorrow I have an important exam. I have to study in the kitchen where I am bothered by the radio and nutty conversation between my mother and my aunt. To top it, my kid brothers usually are fighting in the back hall.

I can't study in my bedroom because the 60 watt bulb is not bright enough and I get a headache when I try to read. Mom says a 100 watt bulb is too expensive to put in a bedroom. Yet she burns a 60 watt bulb in the bathroom all night for my six-year-old brother because he's afraid of the dark. Please give me some help in the column. She always reads it.—DIM HOPES.

Dear Hopes: Ask your mom to put a 100 watt bulb in your bedroom and a 25 watt bulb in the bathroom. What's the difference?

Cutting Time Determines Hay Quality

The quality of hay that you will have to feed your livestock next winter is going to be determined to a large extent by the time that you cut your various hay crops.

Cut alfalfa in the 1-10 bloom stage. This is often hard to determine, so the emergence of new shoots from the crown is usually a better guide. Cut when these new shoots appear but before many of them will be clipped by the mower.

Cut Red Clover by the time it reaches 3/4 bloom to full bloom, before any heads turn brown. As compared to later harvest, your hay will be of better quality and a better hay or seed crop will be obtained from the second cutting. Alsike and sweet clover also need to be cut in the early bloom stage.

Bromegrass hay may best be

"EVEN OUR WATER COMES IN BY DODGE TRUCK"

With no telephone and the nearest neighbor 25 miles away, our daily existence depends on trucks. This part of New Mexico is really tough truck country. That's why we use only Dodges, nine of them to operate our 66,000-acre ranch. Our nearest water comes from 15 miles away. The closest town is 85 miles away, 40 of them over dusty, twisting, rocky, washboard road. Everything, including water, moves by truck. Our Dodges are always ready to go. They certainly live up to the word 'Dependable'. Sam A. Hughes, Queen Route, Carlsbad, New Mexico. Typical of the way Dodge trucks live up to the word 'Dependable,' Mr. Hughes' oldest Dodge, a 1950, performs the ranch's key job, carrying the water. It's a daily chore. Dodge trucks being built today are even better in many ways. Some improvements you can see, some you can't. Talk to your Dodge truck dealer. He'll give you the whole story. See him soon. And ask about his liberal new truck finance plan.

before or as the heads are coming out of the boot. This will give better regrowth as well as better hay.

With lespedeza, harvest for hay as soon as it is tall enough. Six inches of height above the mower bar is about all that is going to be good hay from lespedeza anyway, since taller growth will just have that much more stems, which will only make bulk, but not good feed.

Where you have grass and legume mixtures, guide your time of cutting according to the predominant species.

Your final answer on when to cut hay has to be a compromise, just as with so many other farm jobs. This compromise is not only between total yield and quality, and affect on the stand, but with an overcrowded work schedule, you have the problem of fitting in with other farm work that needs to be done.

Of course, weather conditions may be unfavorable at the proper time for cutting your hay. In that case, it may be practical for you to consider making grass silage instead.
